Mission Statement

We exist to impact people around the corner and around the world with the love of Jesus.

Our Core Values

Biblical Focus

Applying God's never-changing Word to an ever-changing world.

All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right. God uses it to prepare and equip his people to do every good work.
2 Timothy 3:16-17

Spiritual Transformation

Changing lives through a relationship with Jesus.

Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship. Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.
Romans 12:1-2

Community Impact

Making our community a better place to live.

*He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation."
Mark 16:15*

Loving Relationships

Creating a place for genuine relationships.

*The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these.
Mark 12:31*

Passionate Worship

Gathering together, praising and honoring God with all our heart.

*Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth. Worship the Lord with gladness; come before him with joyful songs. Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. Know that the Lord is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture.
Psalm 100:1-4*

From the Word

Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! --Philippians 4:4

The Declaration of Independence states that an individual has certain inalienable rights; among them is the "pursuit of happiness." Ever since the fall into sin, that's what people have been doing—pursuing happiness. Unfortunately, sinful people pursue happiness in the worst of places. The adulterer cries, "Here is happiness," only to realize later the grief and destruction he has caused. Many try alcohol and drugs but soon find that their happiness is fleeting at best.

As Christians, the source of our joy is much more certain than what this world has to offer. The apostle Paul wrote, "Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!" Why should we rejoice? Paul answers, "In the Lord." Our joy as Christians is changeless because it is based on the One who never changes. Unlike people, possessions, and positions of power, God never changes. He loves us as much today as the day He was nailed to the cross for us. He is as powerful today as the day He defeated death for us and rose from the dead.

Your job may have changed. Your marriage may have changed. Your place of residence may have changed. But your God hasn't changed. And neither has your reason for rejoicing.

As Americans, we have the right to pursue happiness. As Christians, we are guaranteed eternal joy. Reflect on that joy today as you go to God's Word and are reminded of all that He has done and continues to do for you. And then REJOICE!

Prayer: Lord Jesus, thank You for giving me the joy of knowing that my sins are forgiven. Thank You for the joy of knowing Your love for me does not change. Help me to demonstrate that joy in everything I do and say this day.

Laughter Really Is the Best Medicine!

If you watch Jaws backwards, it is a heartwarming story about a shark who gives arms and legs to people who need them.
