Mission Statement

We exist to impact people around the corner and around the world with the love of Jesus.

Our Core Values

Biblical Focus

Applying God's never-changing Word to an ever-changing world.

All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right. God uses it to prepare and equip his people to do every good work.
2 Timothy 3:16-17

Spiritual Transformation

Changing lives through a relationship with Jesus.

Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship. Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.
Romans 12:1-2

Prayer Requests

- Duane Wallon having health issues.
- Ruth Saunders undergoing cancer treatment.
- Julinda Smith undergoing kidney treatment.

Community Impact

Making our community a better place to live.

*He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation."
Mark 16:15*

Loving Relationships

Creating a place for genuine relationships.

*The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these.
Mark 12:31*

Passionate Worship

Gathering together, praising and honoring God with all our heart.

*Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth. Worship the Lord with gladness; come before him with joyful songs. Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. Know that the Lord is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture.
Psalm 100:1-4*

From the Word

"Martha, Martha," the Lord answered, "you are worried and upset about many things, but few things are needed—or indeed only one. Mary has chosen what is better." --Luke 10:41,42

One thing that might happen when we read this account of Mary and Martha is to make it into a lesson that says, "Be less like Martha. Be more like Mary. Stop being so busy and start reading your Bible more." This account could very easily turn into just another law to fulfill if we're not careful.

However, Jesus isn't aiming to replace one to-do list with another. He's giving an invitation more than He's giving a command. He's inviting us to let Him serve us. That is the better thing. Or, as some translations say, that is the "better portion." It's almost like Jesus is talking about a meal. There were two meals being served that day. The necessary one was not the meal Martha served Jesus, but the one Jesus served them. As a result, the portion of that spiritual meal Mary chose for herself was better. If you must make a choice of feeding Jesus or being fed by Jesus, choose the latter because that's what Jesus wants for you more than anything else.

It's like Jesus says to you, "Please just sit down here with me." And what is it that He wants to tell you? "I'm with you always to the very end of the age." "I'm the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world." "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives." "I am going to prepare a place for you, and will take you to be with me where I am."

Jesus said there are few things that we need. Indeed, there is only one thing we truly need: the Word and promises of our God. If everything else in our life was taken away, we'd still have all that we need: the love of Jesus, our Savior.

Jesus said there are few things that we need. Indeed, there is only one thing we truly need: the Word and promises of our God. If everything else in our life was taken away, we'd still have all that we need: the love of Jesus, our Savior.

Prayer: Jesus, thank You for providing for my deepest spiritual needs. By Your Spirit, help me to always choose the better portion of listening to Your voice.
